

Field Service Engineer Requirements

Field Service Engineer

A Field Service Engineer is needed to perform on-site installations , servicing, and repair of electronic instruments and control systems.

Those interested should Email or Fax resume, salary requirements, and references to:

Email: HR.Jobs@automationpartners.com

Fax: 707-665-3989

Position:

Provide technical direction and support to customers on operational and maintenance aspects of electronic measurement and control systems, to serve as a customer contact on technical and service related issues.

Perform on-site installation, servicing, and repair of complex electronic instruments and control systems. Check out and approve operational quality of systems. Instruct customer personnel in the operation and maintenance of systems.

Interface with engineering on design, reliability, and maintenance issues.

Travel domestically and internationally approximately 70% of the time to customer sites.

Requirements:

Knowledge of computer operating systems including Windows 2000/NT/XP and the general hardware setup for computers.

Good oral and written communications skills.

Education:

Two years technical school or equivalent.

Experience:

Two years of experience as an electronics technician, field service technician, or customer service technician.

Base Office Location:

Cotati, California (Sonoma County)